

Questions & Answers

on Legal Medical Cannabis Products Regulated by Health Canada.

Where can I legally obtain medical cannabis?

Licensed Producers

Licensed producers authorized by Health Canada are the only legal source of cannabis. Refer to Health Canada's list:
www.hc-sc.gc.ca/dhp-mps/marihuana/info/list-eng.php

Other Suppliers

There are NO other suppliers of legal medical cannabis.

How do I know I am getting a safe, quality product?

Licensed Producers

Regulated products for safety & quality:

- Medical Cannabis is cultivated according to Good Production Practices (GPP) and subjected to regular and rigorous government quality and regulatory audits.
- Quality controlled products feature a wide range of the cannabinoids THC and CBD. Cannabinoid levels of each product are tested for accuracy.
- Testing for impurities (e.g: fungus, bacteria, heavy metals, pesticides) is conducted to guarantee safety of all products.
- Packaging and labelling are regulated. Products are sold in child-resistant containers.

Other Suppliers

The source of product and its content and safety are unknown and unregulated.

How am I protected?

Licensed Producers

Full protection:

- Proof of legal possession is provided and patients can travel within Canada with their medication.
- Patient can consult well-educated and trained client service teams.
- Consumers are protected by a Health Canada recall mechanism in case of product issues.
- Medical cannabis from licensed producers is an allowable medical expense on personal federal taxes.

Other Suppliers

- Patients are NOT legally protected if stopped by police.
- There is NO recall mechanism to protect consumers.
- This product is NOT tax deductible.

How can I get this product?

Licensed Producers

- A doctor must prescribe, then an order is placed through website, telephone or email from a licensed producer's well-educated and trained client service teams.
- Direct and discreet delivery through licensed producers via secure mail order/courier is the only current legal method in Canada.

Other Suppliers

You cannot legally obtain medical cannabis from any other suppliers.